Deano's Prop Repair offers a mail-in propeller and gear case repair service. To take advantage of this service, you must agree to abide by the following terms and conditions:

1. Mail-in repairs are accepted from all addresses within Canada. Customers outside of Canada are not eligible for this service.
2. Deano's Prop Repair can repair most types of consumer-grade, residential watercraft propellers constructed of Stainless Steel, Aluminum, and Nibril, as well as gear cases from most residential watercraft. If you are not sure of your item's construction or eligibility for this service, please Contact Us before taking advantage of this service.
3. Some types of damage are not repairable and require a replacement. While Deano's will make every effort to repair propellers and gear cases sent to us, we cannot guarantee any propeller or gear case can be repaired. Please Contact Us if you are not sure if your propeller or gear case can be repaired.
4. You are responsible for all shipping charges levied by Canada Post or courier service, including return shipping. This includes ineligible or unrepairable items that you send to us.
5. You acknowledge that if you fail to pay all shipping & repair costs within thirty days of Deano's Prop Repair requesting payment, you surrender ownership of the item. If Deano's Prop Repair is unable to contact you within sixty days, the item will be considered abandoned.
6. Repair costs are as follows:
